

ART 174: Photography II

This course advances the students' technical and aesthetic knowledge of photography beyond the introductory level. Emphasis is placed on photographic composition and darkroom techniques as a means of communication. Upon completion, students should demonstrate through the photographic process their creative and communication skills.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 6

Lecture Hours: 0

Prerequisites:

ART 173.

Program: Art