

CHD 210: Educating Children with Exceptional Needs

This course explores the many different types of exceptionalities found in young children. Topics include speech, language, hearing and visual impairments; gifted and talented children; mental retardation; emotional, behavioral, and neurological handicaps. Upon completion, students should be able to identify appropriate strategies for working with young exceptional children.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Program: Child Development