

ENG 271: World Literature I

This course is a study of selected literary masterpieces from Antiquity to the Age of Reason. Emphasis is placed on major representative works and writers of this period and on the literary, cultural, historical, and philosophical forces that shaped these works and that are reflected in them. Upon completion and in written compositions, students will be able to interpret the aesthetic and thematic aspects of these works, relate the works to their historical and literary contexts, and understand relevant criticism and research.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

ENG 102 or equivalent with a grade of "C" or better.

Program: English