

MLT 293: MLT Clinical Seminar

This course is a cumulative review of medical laboratory science theory. The seminar consists of cumulative review of previous courses emphasizing recall, application or theory, correlation, and evaluation of all areas of medical laboratory science. This course will assist in preparation of the students for the National Board of Certification exam.

Credits: 2

Lecture Hours: 2

Program: Medical Laboratory Technology