

Commitment to Institutional Integrity

Northwest-Shoals Community College complies with the Alabama Ethics Commission's advisory opinions concerning private consulting that may be conducted by full-time employees. The Chancellor's guidelines in regard to "conflict of interest" issues require the approval of the President, Vice President (if applicable), Deans and Department or Division Chairperson for outside, compensated consulting activities.