

ACR 209: Commercial Air Conditioning Systems

This course focuses on servicing and maintaining commercial and residential HVACR systems. Topics include system component installation and removal and service techniques. Upon completion, the student should be able to troubleshoot and perform general maintenance on commercial and residential HVACR systems.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 2

Lecture Hours: 1

Program: Air Conditioning/Refrigeration Technology