

ACT 104: Introduction to Business

This course acquaints the student with American business as a dynamic process. Topics include the private enterprise system, forms of business ownership, marketing, production factors, personnel, labor, finance, and taxation. Upon completion, the student should be able to discuss and apply the basic business principles.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Program: Accounting Technology