

ACT 247: Advanced Accounting Applications on the Microcomputer

In this course, students use the microcomputer in managerial accounting. Emphasis is on a variety of software programs for managerial accounting applications. Upon completion, the student should be able to use various managerial accounting software programs. This course is offered only in the spring semester.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

ACT 246

Program: Accounting Technology

Semester Offered: Spring