

EMS 234: Decision Making and Problem Solving in EMS

This course provides students with concepts relating to problem solving and decision making. Topics include decision making in the emergency and non-emergency setting, group dynamics and group think phenomenon. Upon course completion, students should be able to begin to use critical thinking skills to solve problems and make appropriate decisions.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Program: Emergency Medical Services